BLOOM is a biographical narrative that retraces the life of 67 year old Kate Braun up until the present moment. Loosely based on her true life story, BLOOM analyzes an aged lifetime in a manner to help clarify the decisions she made and all their rippling consequences. Unfolded on the road in both modern day and the late 1970's, the story is framed around two unique moments in Kate's life; both of her attempts to leave the home she feels trapped in for a better life out West.

We will have the real Kate Esther shown on camera for this project, 40 years older (in the future).

For this specific role, Katie (4) is a younger sister to her brother Brent (7). They spend a lot of time together on the farm playing in the yard and making fake believe adventures. (We will also have 'of era' toys and games for them to interact with during the day of filming).

Fllming will commence in select areas outside the house as well as inside the house as the entire family interacts with their home. This includes but is not limited to; front and back yard, grass fields, hay barn, dining room, family room, bedroom, front door porch.
